

THE ACCOUNTABILITY TARGET

For when something went wrong and a name is required.

Missed the board entirely? Blame the throw. That is also someone's fault.

HOW TO PLAY

Photocopy this page and pin it to a wall. When someone asks “How did this happen?”, throw something soft at it: a paper ball, a sticky note, a stress ball. Never a stapler. Announce the result in a calm voice. Bullseye: own it, quietly, and receive a raise (pending).

Results are final. Appeals go to the printer.

Official office game. Players: whoever is in the room. Skill level: defensive.
